d. Price Increase on Replacement for Class 5F Security Container

As reported in the Weekly Report of 10-17 July 1984, the Supply Management Branch initiated a Stock Replenishment request through OL/PD to procure 25 four-drawer and ten two-drawer security containers this fiscal year as a replacement for the Class 5F Diebold Cabinets. At that time, the Mosler Corporation quoted a price of $2,500.00 for a four-drawer and $1,500.00 for a two-drawer type Class 5F security container. However, during this reporting period, Mosler has notified Procurement Division that actual costing of the two- and four-drawer cabinets will be $2,320.00 and $3,456.00 respectively, with a 5 percent discount on quantity purchases. e. Briefing of Office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff
Personnel

On 6 August 1984, the Director of Logistics briefed Major General Wesley Rice, USMC, Joint Special Operations Agency, Office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (OJCS) and senior members of his staff. MG Rice is responsible for advising the Joint Chiefs of Staff in all matters pertaining to special operations and related military activities, including national strategy, planning, programming, budgeting, resource development, and allocation; and deployment of forces. Although each of the military focal point offices operate independently, they are all subject to OJCS policies and ground rules formulated by MG Rice's office.

MG Rice reciprocated by providing an illuminating briefing of the functions and responsibilities of his newly created position within the OJCS and his interface with other DOD components. The exchange of briefings and candid comments was well received by all parties. MG Rice, in his summation, emphasized that he is looking forward to continuing the highly successful and fruitful relationship between the Agency and DOD. [REDACTED]
